

SRP WORKSHOPS

SRP workshops are offered each quarter to provide students with information on how to find a faculty mentor and receive academic credit for research. The workshops will also provide you with information on writing a curriculum vitae and finding a UCLA faculty mentor.

Notice of Change

Contracts have been updated to make it easier to determine which students need to attach LSFC to their contract upon submission. If required, students will see a new section below the faculty mentor information entitled “Safety Training” with a bolded statement that reads: “Proof of Completion of the Laboratory Safety Fundamental Concepts (LSFC) course is required for participation in research with this mentor.” Students who do not need to complete safety training will not have this statement appear.
