

UCLA Poster Printing Locations and Rates

If you would like to have your poster printed, contact one of the following printing locations. Please note that due to the high volume of posters being printed, you should allow for ample turnaround time!

Please also note that some locations may be fully booked; contact the printing location ahead of time to ask about printing availability and to schedule the time when you will drop off your poster.

Be sure to ask your faculty mentor about preferred printing locations and any poster printing funds that are available.
